

“Whale Song Ocean Water”

*It all started with a meditation I had,
when the “Big Blue Wisdom Whale” came to me from the depths of the sea
to commune!*

*I was in Hawaii at the time,
doing an Angel course at Kona!
The message & visions were so clear,
I just had to follow guidance!*

*It was later on, after doing some research, I found out that the Big Blue Wisdom Whale still exists and his type are becoming extinct! He actually lives around Hawaii and connects with all the whales around the Earth! Like a guardian of the whale kingdom!
His message was to say, that when I returned home, to the very Southern Victorian waters at the bottom of Australia, that many whales are going to come there next season...
So I was to prepare a special water which will hold the vibration of Oceanic sound & light... then to share it with the people whom are the record keepers, like the whales....*

*The Southern Rights come past here twice a year, but when the Big Blue Wisdom Whale said many whales would come, I didn't know how many to expect!
Sure enough... the next whale season, we had the Southern Rights [the regulars], the Humpbacks, [which sing]; there were 5 Humpbacks, they don't go past here hardly at all!, ... some Pilot whales, and even some Orcas came up from the Antarctic waters... all within the same month!!!
It was a miracle! So I had prepared my crystal bowl, filled it with ocean water and placed in it 3 chosen crystals... a Lemurian whale crystal from Adelaide... a clear quartz record keeper which travelled with me to Hawaii, which is an Atlantean crystal... and a Larimar, the Dolphin Temple stone... all these 3 stones sat in the bowl of ocean water...*

*On the night of the full-moon, the singing whales stopped behind my house for 3 days & sung.
I woke up in the middle of the night & heard this strange high pitch frequency but didn't register.
It wasn't until morning that I realized it was the whales as they were still there, hanging around!
I felt very fortunate to of captured their tones in my crystal waters!*

I was then guided by the whales to bottle this water, which gave me 44 bottles, I knew that it would go to the right people who hold sacred codes and to assist in unlocking them, & I trusted that!

The bottles come in a beautiful indigo glass and retails for $15, all the funds go to Greenpeace to help save the whales as they are doing a marvellous job!

*The whales have held these sacred codes & stories for a long time now from when we could remember our divinity and they wish and need to pass them on now ! So as Gaia's “Divine Plan” can be full-filled, and we remember who we are always & why we are here!
So the waters will activate your NEW light body and open & reveal your gifts so you can find your Spiritual purpose and be able to work in with humanities higher frequencies also that of the
